"If we reach the family we reach the world" - Bill Bright

God's timing is perfect, even if we aren't sure while we're waiting on Him. We have been so anxious to get to Little Rock and FamilyLife, it has been hard to wait on our house to sell. But on New Year's Day, it did! God gave us one more Christmas here, and a new beginning for our new year! Three days later, we were in Little Rock, looking for our new home there. We found one that is very lovely and fairly spacious (hard to get used to the idea of no basements), but needs some interior work. We made a low offer, and they took it, not even a counter offer! truly provides. While we were there both of the kids made some new friends, and got to climb Pinnacle Mountain. We visited Fellowship Bible Church, which we liked a lot, even though it is not our beloved TBC. We also got to see how a little snow shuts down Little Rock, and had to stay an extra day before we could get out. So now we prepare for the next phase of our adventure, which begins February 16th. Stay tuned....Blessings,

While in Little Rock house hunting we experienced a rare 5" snow there. We were hosted by Hal & Charlotte Driver. Hal is responsible for video projects at FamilyLife. See www.familylife.com for some of Hal's work; click on Events, Art of Marriage!

FamilyLife Resource highlight of the month

Weekend to remember marriage getaway

This conference changed lives in 2010:

- 70,000+ attendees at 130 conferences
- Over 2,000 people trusted in Christ as their Savior!

I arrived with my "enemy" and left with my "best friend" again. God has done a mighty work in me as I knew He would. -St. Louis

We are moving from a place of being ready to divorce to looking forward to growing together through Christ. This has given us important tools to do so. -Bellingham, WA

FamilyLife saved my parents marriage 25 years ago and are the reason they are still married. I am who I am today because of their choice NOT to become a broken family. -Monterey, CA
